the Maharaja of Mysore, General and Rev. Depts.

Sir,

Adverting to para 2 of Govt.Pro.No.1560-8 / L.B.492-05-2 dated the 16th August'06 requesting me to make a separate reference in regard to imprest amount required for this office and regarding the supply of stationery from the Government Stationery Depot, I have the honor to state that in accordance with Govt. Proceedings No.16315-6 / L.B.316-96 dated the 8th June 1901, an imprest of Rs 10/- was sanctioned to the Sanitary Inspector who however did not make use of the same, which subsequently has been left with the Head clerk of this office without its being used for want of Government sanction and in consideration of the insufficiency of the amount even for meeting urgent petty payments and other contingent charges &c.

Owing to want of imprest to this office, there is at present a great difficulty for making payments for contingent charges and for incurring other miscellaneous expenditure on urgent occasions, and I would therefore request that Government sanction be accorded for an imprest of at least 50/- rupees for the office.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.

Sir
